

I DON'T BELIEVE IN WARM UPS

I don't believe in warm ups
They don't do anything for me
I don't believe in warm ups
I just can't see the necessity

We climb up high - ah ah aaah!
We slide down low – oooooh!
But I don't feel any different
I'm just going with the flow, oh!

I don't believe in warm ups
Or the benefits they bring
No I don't believe in warm ups
But I'm nearly ready to sing

I don't believe in warm ups
They really leave me rather cold
I don't believe in warm ups
I'm only doing what I've been told

We roll our 'r's – rrrrrrr
We trill our lips – brrrrrr
But I can't see the advantage
Of these endless vocal flips, oh!

I don't believe in warm ups
Or the benefits they bring
No I don't believe
I don't believe in warm ups
But now I'm ready to sing
