

RIVERS RUN (Karine Polwart 2008, arr. Nickomo)

B: Rivers run, rivers run (x5)

T: Rivers flow and rivers run (x4)

A: Rivers run and rivers flow (x2) rivers run,

This weary Earth we walk upon
She will endure when we are gone
While kingdoms come and kingdoms go
Rivers run and rivers flow
(mintrö)

You know I don't believe it's true
That in this world there's nothing new
For darling you have just begun
Rivers flow and rivers run (oh)
And if the river should ever run dry
Somewhere the rain will still fall,
Will still fall from the sky
(mintrö)

When I'm beguiled by the fear
That darker days are drawing near
My darling, you seduce the sun
Rivers flow and rivers run
And if the river should ever run dry
Somewhere the rain will still fall,
Will still fall from the sky
(mintrö)

This wounded Earth we walk upon
She will endure when we are gone
But still I pray that you may know
How rivers run and rivers flow
And if the river...

*I cross my heart and hope to live
Just long enough that I can give
*It all to you, my darling one
Rivers flow and rivers run
(mintrö)
My darling one,
Rivers flow and rivers run
